TFS announces expansion of light-end fuel brokerage services

LONDON, 26 February 2008—TFS Energy, a leading interdealer broker and subsidiary of Compagnie Financière Tradition, today announces the appointment of Mike Haynes as a senior broker on the Naptha Desk. Mr. Haynes joined TFS on 15 February and will work alongside Ruari Ypma.

Mr. Haynes is a well-known and respected broker with over 12 years' industry experience. He joins TFS from Aspen, where he was a Naptha broker for nine years. Before joining Aspen, Mr. Haynes worked at Star Supply London.

Mr. Haynes's appointment further strengthens TFS's presence in the UK oil market. Other appointments have included Mark Amin, who brokers LPG products and will soon join from Tullett Prebon. In May 2008 Michael Kleiman will join TFS from Aspen to help set up a new gasoline desk. For the past seven years he has brokered physicals and derivatives on Mogas.

"We are delighted that Mike Haynes has now started with us, soon to be followed by his colleague at Aspen, Michael Kleiman", says Michael Anderson, Head of Energy (Europe). "These hires of high-profile, highly regarded oil professionals reflect TFS's continued determination to be the market leader globally in OTC-oil brokering."
